
Project Partners LLC Announces New Project Portfolio Management Practice

The Experts in Enterprise Project Management Now Offer Professional Services for Primavera®, Microsoft® and AtTask® Solutions

Half Moon Bay, Calif. April 14, 2008 / PRNewswire -- Project Partners LLC, the experts in enterprise project management, today announced the launch of their new Project Portfolio Management services offering. These Project Portfolio Management services enable project-centric customers to take full advantage of industry-leading enterprise project management systems, and to measure, develop and mature the project management practices of their organizations.

Effective immediately, Primavera®, Microsoft® Office Enterprise Project Management, and AtTask® join Oracle® E-Business Suite Projects as platforms for which Project Partners' world-class consulting is available. Project Partners' expert services will help client firms leverage these systems to introduce standards and common practices to their organizations, and provide increased visibility into project performance.

Project Partners is now offering expert implementation services for the following products.

- * Primavera
 - Primavera P6
 - Contract Manager (Expedition)
 - Primavera Contractor 5
 - Primavera Project Planner 3.1
 - Primavera Cost Manager

- * Microsoft Office Enterprise Project Management Solutions
 - Microsoft Office Project Professional 2007
 - Microsoft Office Project Server 2007
 - Microsoft Office Project Web Access 2007
 - Microsoft Office Project Portfolio Server 2007

- * @Task Project & Portfolio Management Software
 - Including built-in integration with iPhone, Microsoft Outlook and ERP systems

- * Oracle E-Business Suite Projects Applications

"Project Partners' reputation in the Oracle Project Management applications space is unsurpassed," said Chad Perry, vice president of business partners at AtTask. "We look forward to having Project Partners provide the same top quality services for our award winning @Task project and portfolio management software."

“We’re pleased that Project Partners can now offer our customers a variety of end-to-end solutions, with related out-of-the box integration to Primavera or Oracle Projects applications,” said Randy Egger, president of Project Partners.

Many organizations are establishing a Project Management Office (PMO) to create a foundation for repeated successful execution of projects across the enterprise. Project Partners offers Project Management Institute® (PMI) -certified Project Management Professionals (PMPs) to help client firms develop a PMO that leverages existing culture and organization structure for rapid adoption. Project Partners provides education on project management methodology and best practices as well as tailored instruction on how to best leverage a firm’s investment in project management systems to evolve and mature project management practices.
